

Your mouth is a busy place.

Bacteria - tiny little organisms are constantly feeding on your teeth, gums, lips & tongue.

Bacteria loves junk food and candy. Regular tooth brushing and flossing are important for removing this bacteria and in maintaining healthy teeth and gums.

If they're not removed, they attack and turn into cavities.